Leg Injuries Trigger City Council Action

Safety conditions on the ball diamonds for Little League and Pony League players in Palm Springs and previous councilmanic promises on 1949 park bond funds were spotlighted by the city council Tuesday.

The safety discussions were triggered by a reported case of a severe ankle sprain June 20 and a broken ankle July 13.

The youngster who sprained the ankle, Windell Pellum, 13, reportedly caught his spikes in an uncured base; Lloyd Chaisson, 13, who received a broken ankle, reportedly slid under a first base bag where dirt had been kicked away from the bag, the council learned.

The same youngster suffered a broken ankle in Little League play two years ago, a city spokesman said.

Need a Place

"It's wonderful to have all these kids playing, and we better have a place for them to play," Mayor Frank M. Bogert told fellow council members during the 12:30 a.m. discussion.

"Two or three" new ball diamonds—including two proposed for the Linneau Village tract on East Ramon Road west of Palm Springs High School, and a possible joint venture for high school fields—will be presented to the council for action in time for 1963 play, Charles Kasper, acting city manager, reported.

KICKOFF AT 6:30

Fishing Derby Scheduled Tonight

The stage is set. The fish are jumping. The lake is clear and all boys and girls between the ages of five and 80 are anxiously awaiting the 6:30 p.m. deadline tonight. That will be the kickoff of the second citywide Fishing Derby, sponsored jointly by the Recreation and Special Events Department, is expected to gather along the shore to try their luck as anglers. Fishermen snagging trout in tonight's event can have the fish cleaned "Johnny-on-the-spot" by capable personnel at lakeside, according to the city recreation department.

As in the first Fishing Derby, many families plan to gather at the lake early bringing with them a picnic dinner and enjoy an evening of outing together.

So, like the early bird that catches the worm, the early anglers will have first choice at the select fishing spots already scouted by many eager anglers.

New York Stocks at Closing

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stocks recovered their shallow early losses in the final hour of trading today to close narrowly in the popular averages.

Dealings, although they remained relatively light, exceeded yesterday's pace by several hundred thousand shares.

Big American Telephone was one of the first issues to recover and wound up as the only blue chip to show much more than a point gain. Somewhat higher sales and earnings sent Owens-Illinois up nearly a point but similar news failed to help Westinghouse.

Some steels, notably Bethlehem went ahead, while others made up most of their sizable early losses. A firmer trend was reported from the steel scrap markets, perhaps accounting for the group's late buoyancy. Autos, chemicals and oils finished fractionally mixed in most cases.

Scholarships Told

NEW YORK (UPI) — The award of 134 scholarships to young men to study in 35 U.S. colleges and universities was announced here by the Alfred P. Sloan foundation.

The grants range from $200 to $2,000. Foundation President Everett N. Case said they were to "identify young men of talent, imagination and intellectual curiosity who offer promise of excelling and becoming leaders in their professions."

It is estimated that Mexico's Pyramid of the Sun, which rises as high as a 20-story building, took 10,000 laborers 20 years to build.

Was He Evicted By Fire?

INDIO — A $228,456.25 suit filed in Superior Court here Tuesday against Palm Springs Councilman George Beebe Jr. and "unnamed" defendants may include the Palm Springs fire department.

Joseph Kuri, who reportedly had leased a women's clothing store at 152 N. Palm Canyon Drive from Beebe last August charged that he was wrongfully evicted from the shop April 23.

City fire department records revealed that a fire which resulted in smoke and fire damage, as well as structural damage to the building ceiling, was reported at 7 a.m. April 25.

Kuri's suit asks $50,000 for loss of business and prospective profits, $45,000 loss of leasehold interest, $35,965.25 for loss of reported potential benefits under an agreement for sale and sublease, $7,500 for mental anguish, $30,000 for equipment and stock and $60,000 for the alleged breaking and entering.

The April 25 blaze was fought for more than an hour by city firemen, who had to chop into the ceiling and roof to combat flames. A city fire department spokesman reported today that records indicate the fire started in an attic installation.

Contacted this morning by The Desert Sun Beebe said, "The report published in an out-of-town newspaper this morning about this matter is the first knowledge I have had about the suit. I have talked since to Kuri who assures me that the object of the suit is The Centre which owns the building of which he sub-leased a portion to him."

A committee of doctors on the hospital staff where the operation would be performed recommended terminating the pregnancy on the basis of medical evidence. The woman, whose name was withheld, agreed, but the final decision was postponed until legal aspects of the case were examined.

Maricopa attorney Charles Ronan said, "I doubt there would be any prosecution unless some outside person came in here and wanted to file a complaint. But that could be anybody."

"We must assume the doctors would follow the law unless there is some evidence to the contrary," said Ronan.

The doctors' recommendation was based on medical evidence that a drug the woman had taken, thalidomide, can cause deformities of children.

JayCees to Hear Of City Budget

Charles Kasmer, Palm Springs acting city manager, will speak to the Junior Chamber of Commerce on the 1962-63 city budget, during a 7:30 p.m. meeting Thursday.

The meeting, to be held in the Palm Springs Lanes, Tahquitz-McCallum Way, will begin with a 6:45 p.m. cocktail reception. All interested men between the ages of 21 and 35 are invited to the no-host affair, chairman Jerry Hunt announced.

Enthusiastic Support of Pat Martin Reported Here

Enthusiastic support of the Pat Martin campaign for Congress was reported last night to the board members of the Palm Springs Republican Assembly. The detailed report was made by Riverside campaign directors Richard Purvis, schools executive; James Wood, insurance man; and James Corison, attorney.

Success of the primary campaign of Martin was attributed to around roots "amateur" work at the precinct level, by Purvis, Martin's campaign manager. He told the Palm Springs Republicans that the basic work was done by volunteers who represented all walks of business and professional life. Outdoor posters for example, he said, were emplaced at night by a flying squad of "Martin's Marauders" who included three prominent surgeons.

PALM DESERT — Private family services for Naida Margaret Staples, 53, 73545 Shadow Mountain Drive, were scheduled for Melrose Abbey Mausoleum in Santa Ana this morning.

She was a member of the Pi Beta Phi Sorority of the University of Oregon and was active in the Tanelectric organization of Palm Desert.

Mrs. Staples was survived by her widower, Isaac (Ed) Staples; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Plummer of Portland; and one sister, Katherine Keller of Portland.

Would-Be Suicide Ends in Jail

THOUSAND PALMS — A would-be suicide here landed in Indio jail late Tuesday on charges of flourishing a gun in a dangerous manner.

Maricopa attorney Charles Ronan said, "I doubt there would be any prosecution unless some outside person came in here and wanted to file a complaint. But that could be anybody."

The alarmed workers became more so when they walked into the building and found their buddy waving a .22 caliber rifle toward the door. They waited until a California Highway Patrol officer arrived on a routine check.

The CHP officer and one of the co-workers entered the building, and retreated before the waving gun barrel. Minutes later, the threatened suicide walked out of the building with his hands raised, minus the gun. He was promptly escorted to the Indio jail, and booked on suspicion of bandishing a dangerous weapon. Soon afterward, he was released on bail.

Sheriff's investigators are reviewing the case today.

Who's Still in Palm Springs?

There is something very nice and cozy about Palm Springs in the summertime. Most of the strangers who flock the streets during the season (and we love them!) are gone, and almost every person one meets is a friend—or at least an acquaintance.

Every so often The Desert Sun photographer, Bob Nims, likes to take his camera and go prowling around to see just who is still in the desert for the summer. Here are some typical scenes captured by his all-seeing Rollei.

DINNER TIME COMES LATER, but first comes the food. Here, in a typical Palm Springs scene, the photographer has captured Kenny Price, Mrs. Price, and Kenny Jr. laying in a supply of groceries just purchased from the Market Basket. Shoppers go about their task early in the day to avoid the heat.

Pretty Linens Will Bring Color to School Bedrooms

School days are a - coming!

A coed's life is such a busy one—so much to learn, so much to do—her room should be a beautiful haven. Practical enough for easy cleaning, her home away from home should also be feminine, attractive, cheerful, and inviting. A lovely way to achieve this goal is through the choice of decorative, but sturdy, linens.

"Old Bossy may be the first line of civilian defense in this nuclear age," says Dr. George Davis, director of the University of Florida nuclear activities.

"Milk," he believes, is a good buffer against dangerous radioactive isotopes accumulated in the human body following nuclear exposure. Because of the cow's special body processes (her high calcium metabolism,) milk will contain only one-seventh the percentage of Strontium-90 that was in the feed.

"The high concentration of calcium in milk," he continues, "causes body processes to exert a further 'discriminating factor' so that the actual level of Strontium-90 deposited in human bone is likely to be less from milk than from other foods."

HERBED GREEN BEANS

A delicious way to serve cooked fresh, frozen or canned green beans is to top each serving with a small spoonful dairy sour cream spiked with dill rosemary, or other favorite herb. Or stir the seasoned dairy sour cream into the cooked beans just before serving.

First Visit With Six Sisters in 25 Years

By JEAN PATANE
RANCHO MIRAGE — For the first time in 25 years Mrs. John Finch and her six sisters enjoyed a visit together. The week-end reunion was held at the home of her twin sister Mrs. Otto Lee in Hawthorne. Two of the sisters came down from Seattle, Wash., and also there for the happy occasion were their parents Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Heine of Ingewood, and John Fincher and their son Mike.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Borden of Hollywood who are building a home in Palm City, spent the weekend at the Casbah.

In celebration of the 15th birthday of Roberta Doak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Doak, Mrs. Doak drove Roberta and her friend Carol Adams to Los Angeles where they attended a performance of the musical "Carnival" at the Philharmonic Auditorium. July 14 was the happy day.

Weekend guests at the Joshua Road home of Mr. and Mrs. Forto McCliff were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tallerino of Arcadia and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Belluso who were here from Ventura.

Cassie Mintor who makes her home at the Montesanto apartments, returned from an enjoyable vacation at Ensenada, Mexico. It was her first trip below the border.

Visiting for the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robertson are her daughter and children, Mrs. Raymond McCorley and Debbie Jo, Mark, Laura Lee and Craig. Mrs. McCorley is the former Nyline Ide who grew up in Cathedral City and went to Palm Springs High school through her Junior year. Then the family moved to San Diego.

Her husband, who is with the U.S. Navy is Corpsman 1st Class aboard the Constellation going to South America on the shake-down cruise. In September Mrs. McCorley and the children will join him in San Diego. Mrs. Robertson went to Council Bluffs Iowa where she met her daughter at the home of the senior McCorleys. They had come from Norfolk, Virginia where he had been stationed. Mrs. Robertson, her daughter and children drove back arriving last week.

Linda McManaman spent the weekend in Long Beach as the houseguest of her college roommate Colleen Curran and family. The girls attended the annual steak fry of their sorority, Delta Chi Phi that was held in La Canada Saturday night. Linda and Colleen attend Immaculate Heart College.

Paul Turner, who arrived from his home in Montgomery, Ala.

Union Monopoly Power

Few, if any domestic issues have generated more controversy during the postwar years than the power of organized labor and what, if anything, should be done about it. It is a controversy which has so far been productive of much more heat than light. A variety of laws have been passed, Taft-Hartley being the most important, but, in the view of many none of them have gone to the root of the problem.

The unions, rightly or wrongly, are free of primary legal restrictions which apply to management and industry. This, no doubt, stems from the age when unions were weak and struggling, and public indignation at gross abuses of management power had reached a peak. Sympathy was in favor of the labor movement and its basic goals, and law and public policy reflected that attitude.

But—entirely aside from what one may think should or should not be done now—the change has been complete. It's a fact, not an argument, that the unions are rich and enormously powerful today and can, should they wish, stop production in basic industries from coast to coast, because of their successful introduction of industry-wide bargaining. It is about this fact that the controversy rages.

David Lawrence recently contributed an article to the New York Herald Tribune, subsequently reprinted in condensed form by Reader's Digest, which reflects the thinking of many. He begins: "It's strange how often deep-seated issues are avoided or glossed over. The President appoints a Labor-Management Advisory Committee. It is asked to study 'free and responsible collective bargaining and industrial peace.' The committee is composed of prominent citizens representing labor, management and the public. A report is filed after months of study. It makes a few worthwhile suggestions about amending the procedures leading to the use of the Taft-Hartley Act injunctions, but it does not recommend any way to get rid of the union monopoly power that brings on major strikes."

Mr. Lawrence feels that the present Administration, as demonstrated by various Presidential statements concerning "non-inflationary" wage settlements, and its action in forcing the steel industry to rescind price increases, is doing nothing substantial to clear the air. As he repeats, he sees the fundamental question as union monopoly power.

More specifically—and here Mr. Lawrence is in agreement with a great many students of the problem—the need is to apply to unions restraints comparable to those applied to industry under the anti-trust laws and other statutes. He writes "... as long as industry-wide bargaining is not prohibited by law and a conspiracy to fix uniform wage costs in an industry by concerted action goes untouched by government, there is little chance for a free economy to operate... National unions covering a whole industry are no more logical in a free-enterprise system than are national cartels of management or ownership."

His point, then, is that union monopolies need to be curbed. For if they are not, those who believe in this doctrine are convinced, the inevitable alternative, forced by public pressure, will be more and more regulation by government of the economic system and everything within it. Then the rights and freedoms of labor, like those of management, would grow fewer and fewer.

The Greatest Issue

Those who regarded the recent sharp break in stock prices as a calamitous event were not supported by one top authority—President Keith Funston of the New York Stock Exchange.

Mr. Funston said, "It is not a calamity." He then dealt with an assortment of factors that may have influenced the break. Among them are the President's action when steel attempted to raise prices; the proposed federal law which would apply a withholding tax to dividends; high interest rates offered by saving and loan organizations, which amount to stiffer competition for investment dollar, and a lessening of inflation as a market influence.

The break underlined the fact—which numbers of people seem to have disregarded—that stock values, like all other property values, can go down as well as up, and sometimes precipitately. The get-rich-quick speculator is always in a precarious position. Those who invest for the long pull, as do the vast majority of stock buyers, sleep better of nights.

In his speech Mr. Funston dealt with a much larger question than that of what the stockmarket does or does not do at any given time. He scored the argument that economic problems, such as those of competition and profit, can best be handled by government. For government, he observed, "... has neither the specialized talent nor the experience to do the job.... Moreover, to encourage government—either actively or by default—to assume the decision-making responsibilities of private enterprise comes dangerously close to the abdication of freedom itself." And that, as a principle, covers the greatest domestic issue this country faces today.

HOLMES ALEXANDER:

Five Republicans and Two Democrats

WASHINGTON — In their support of the scuttled Medicare compromise bill, the Senate's five Liberal Republicans—Case, Kuchel, Javits, Cooper and Keating—took the primrose path to the everlasting bonfire, paved as that path always is with good intentions. They breached the Constitution. They scoffed at Senate procedures. They fed some more slow poison to the ailing American morale.

Meanwhile, in opposing the bill, two moderate Democrats—Kerr and Long—brought the whip of satire and the lash of honest scorn to the Senate floor.

Five Republicans

The five Republicans were rising above principle to the barren plateau of expediency. Two of them—Kuchel and Javits—are up for reelection, and in need of Democratic support. The two Democrats cried "Tally Ho" and gave chase to an animal frequently mentioned during debate (the camel that gets its nose under the tent), and did not hesitate to speak the impolitic truth, to wit: that Americans are becoming a race of freeloaders and that his medical bill would be a bonanza for deadbeats and hypochondriacs.

There is enough here to show again what this column has noted before. The Republicans, supposed to be the party for maintaining our republican forms, are withering at the edges. The Democrats, long given to rabble-rousing, are still capable of telling the people that life is not all skittles and side shows.

The much-amended Medicare bill (H.R. 10606) had no right being on the Senate floor, for a number of reasons. It is chiefly a revenue-raising measure which will levy an additional $2 billion-a-year payroll tax through Social Security, beginning in 1964. The Constitution is very clear that all revenue-raising bills must originate in the House. This bill, although filed in the House, was never acted upon there. It was introduced in the Senate as a floor amendment to a public welfare bill, mainly for the relief of dependent children, not related in any way to care of the aged.

Sponsors Take Short Cut

By bypassing the Finance Committee, which would normally consider revenue measures, the bill's sponsors took another short cut past the traditional procedures, and injured the Senate and the country's parliamentary system for expediency's sake. A few more such violations, and an argument can be sustained to show that we don't need Congress any more. Twentieth century life is so complicated that technical experts on mass medicine and whatnot, empowered by a strong Executive, should replace the blundering legislators.

That very argument, applied to foreign policy but with domestic policy in the wings, was made this month by the former Congressman, Chester Bowles, who voluntarily quit legislating to join the Executive branch. Writing for the July 9th Department Bulletin, Ambassador-at-Large Bowles said:

"People stay 50 per cent longer in public hospitals than in private hospitals for any given disease."

"If the Government allows its policies to be shaped by narrow Congressional and public pressures, it may act unwisely... the only rational solution... is, but it is really so? The Senate did its duty in rejecting this bill.

While these five Republicans defected from the Constitution, from parliamentary order and common sense, the two moderate Democrats showed commendable indifference to the risk of going against both demagoguery and the Democratic Administration.

Kerr Needles Colleagues

Kerr, the tallest, and often the drollest of Senators, made a needling speech against Javits for his election-year change of position on medical care, and against Humphrey, who is trying for an election-year tax cut but is pushing this new but hidden tax. Kerr loosed the rounds of his humor on the tent-taking camel, by which he meant that this bill is just a sneaky introduction to Socialized Medicine.

Long told the Senate that in his State parents and their relatives, as well as political ward leaders, begged doctors to lengthen the free hospital stays. In a good-natured but scathing commentary on what tax-supported medical care does to the human character, the Louisianian Senator said:

"People stay 50 per cent longer in public hospitals than in private hospitals for any given disease."

Thus a vote that will eventually lead to Socialized Medicine may look as though it's doing the American people a kindness—but is it really so? The Senate did its duty in rejecting this bill.

...SO SHALL YE REAP

THIS SIDE Of The Sun

R. F. "Phat" GRAETTINGER

The question now is Astronix,
Shall women soar in space?
Go into orbit and affix
Man's last exclusive place?

The Battle of the Sexes is on again. So far it's just a cold war.
It could get hot.

IN ONE OF those hearings congressmen like to hold to while away the time, a House subcommittee took testimony investigating the feasibility of allowing women to become spacegirls.

So far as I know, space is the only place still able to post a sign: "For Men Only."

That's enough to make any woman, worthy of her sex, mad and want to get into the act.

SO CONGRESS had to look into it. They summoned a lot of witnesses including our own Jacqueline Cochran of the Desert Empire, along with John Glenn and Scott Carpenter, who've really been in orbit.

Jackie was doubtful. She said girls tend to get married and being married, tend to have babies, this, she thought, could be a drawback. Women should only be put in orbit after much study.

JACKIE HOLDS more records for speed, distance and altitude than most anybody else. The pregnant idea that babies sort of stymied space girls hamstrung the testimony of other women flyers who wanted to get into the space act.

Glen and Carpenter were different in their testimony. They sort of dodged the calculated risk of reaction at home. Both said, however, they wouldn't bar anybody because of sex or previous condition of servitude but "they'd have to be trained test pilots."

THAT LETS every woman out but our own Jacqueline. She qualifies there. And she said that a lot of money spent training spacegirls will go down the drain because of this female yen to get married and have a family.

One of the committee members apparently didn't take much stock in her testimony or that of the men. He fired off a telegram to JFK asking for action in training women for space jaunts right now. With November coming up and every vote important, you can't blame him for seeking the girls' votes. Maybe he voted against Medicare.

THERE COMES one thought, however. The testimony all pointed to allowing just trained women pilots to be measured for space suits. I'll take that back about Jackie being the only one.

How about our own Zaddie Bunker? She's a trained pilot and an experienced one. Flies jets, too. What's age? Our flying great-grandmother is younger than a lot of girls who'd be astronix.

It was reliably reported that several hundred thousand dollars will be included in the next budget of the California Highway Commission to improve Highway 99 between Banning and White-water. All dips will be eliminated and short curves straightened.

MY OWN IDEA on the whole deal — probably immaterial, incompetent and irrelevant — is, why not let it alone?

Space, the wild blue yonder, is about the only place that is still strictly male. Is it going to go the way of the office, the barber shop, the bar, the poker table?

Besides, women have put more men in orbit than have rockets.

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN:

Dear Abby . . .

DEAR ABBY: You are all wrong about a husband OWING his wife and children protection through life insurance. He owes his CHILDREN security in event of his death, but why his wife?

Since when does a woman need life-long protection? She should go back to being self-supporting the same as before marriage. If a man has no children (or if they are grown) he is nuts to insure himself, because statistics show that women are outliving men by 7 to 10 years, and she will be out living it up while he pushes up tulips. Marriage is a contract between two LIVING people, not a meal ticket for a woman with or without a husband. Your statement needs retraction.

NOT INSURED

DEAR NOT: Where is the average widow, age 50, going to get a "job"? Most women have spent the best years of their lives running a home and raising a family, and are "out of training" or ill equipped to support themselves. What would you suggest? The glue factory?

DEAR ABBY: I met a man where I work and fell for him

Capt. Douglas Schwartz, former member of the fire department who had joined the U.S. Army, and Mrs. Schwartz, visited the city en route to his new post.

Henry Greeley, high school principal, was granted a life certificate by the county board of education.

Total assessed value of Palm Springs was fixed at $33,356,680 as the State Board of Equalization reported public utility values. The gain over the previous year was now $5 million.

Application for a quarry permit near Thunderbird Country Club drew protests from Palm Springs and the county planning commission hearing.

July 25, 1942

The Mission Indian reservation offices, in cooperation with the army, banned all fires of any kind in the canyons surrounding Palm Springs and plans for "steak rides" into the mountains had to be cancelled.

Plans for a post exchange at Toney General Hospital which will virtually become a small business district, were announced by the commanding officer, Col. A. B. Jones.

Following a few days of relief from torrid July weather, the maximum boiled upward again to hit 114 degrees.

hard. He told me he was divorced. I have heard that he is not divorced, only separated, from his wife. He spends a lot of time at her place but says it's because of the kids. How can I find out for sure if he is living under the same roof with her?

MYRTLE

DEAR MYRTLE: Raise it!

DEAR ABBY: Where do you get off telling people it is "proper" for them to knit in company? No lady knits when she is a hostess or guest, for she must give full attention to others. Knitting requires concentration (a knitter must count stitches) and no one can do justice to a conversation while knitting. If someone wants to be good company, she should leave her knitting home.

AN ABBY READER

DEAR READER: Being no knit-wit, I cannot speak from experience, but I have seen women knitting in theatres and while watching television and they do it without dropping a stitch or a word or—a hint of bad manners.

DEAR ABBY: I've been keeping company with this 42-year-old bachelor for about a year. During this time his mother has nagged, cried, developed "dizzy spells," heart pains and hysterics whenever he told her he was serious about me. This didn't keep him from seeing me, however. (Her only objection to me is the fact that I am a widow.) Now she has a new weapon. If he married me, he will be cut out of her estate.

I have never met this woman and am self-supporting. This man and I get on very well together. He is the only one of five children at home with his mother. I love the guy, Abby. Is there any hope for a "Mamma problem"?

GETTING OLDER

DEAR GETTING: It's not a "Mamma problem" — it's a "Sonny problem." Any man who is old enough to tie the marriage knot is old enough to untie the apron string.

DEAR ABBY: My husband goes for weeks without sleeping with me. He takes his pillow and goes out on the porch. He has even gone out in the car. He says I snore so loud I keep him awake, but I can't believe I snore that bad. I have stopped putting up a lunch for him. He got mad. I told him that if he is going to stop acting like a husband I am going to stop acting like a wife. What should I do?

MARRIED BUT SINGLE

DEAR MARRIED: Break the sound barrier! Buy your husband a pair of beeswax ear plugs, and he'll sleep like a honey!

How's the world treating you? For a personal, unpublished reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to ABBY, care of this paper.

PALM DESERT

Dr. F. X. McDonald
Moving by Sections

By GEORGE F. ANDERSON
When we said that Dr. and Mrs. F. X. McDonald were moving their home to Larrea Street we meant it! To make way for the Security First National Bank, the buildings are being moved section by section to the new site, a quarter of a mile away.

The call of Hawaii was not quite loud enough to keep Mr. and Mrs. Tony di Mayle in the islands. They have returned to their favorite spot, Palm Desert, where Tony is active in business again.

The passing of Robert Pelgram, brother of Palm Desert resident, Charles R. Pelgram, was received with sadness by his many friends here.

The Northern lights are still beckoning to Palm Desertites. Ellen and John Moon, with their children, have just returned from a motor trip to the Seattle World's Fair.

Red Attack
On Market
Is Steady

By PHIL NEWSOM

Since Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev started the ball rolling last May, the Communist countries have maintained a steady attack against the European Common Market.

Khrushchev has applied various epithets to the six nations—France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg—which have bound themselves together economically and which in four years have become an economic force rivaling either the United States or Russia.

Among these epithets have been "unnatural marriage," "collective colonialism" and "state monopoly."

Khrushchev's anger possibly springs from three sources:

—The success of the Common Market was not anticipated in the Communist timetable of conquest predicted in a divided Europe.

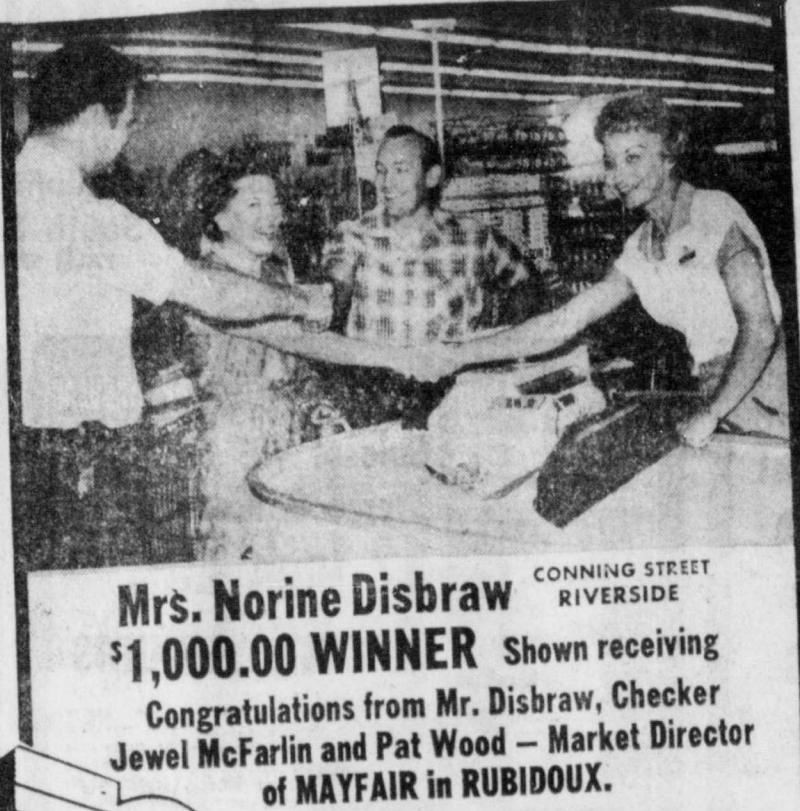

—A real fear that tariff walls erected by the six within the Common Market may choke off the sale of Communist goods to Western Europe.

—A fear of the effect on underdeveloped countries of the increasing flow of foreign aid from Western Europe.

This latter point would account for Khrushchev's attempt to frighten the new and underdeveloped nations by describing the Common Market as a form of "collective colonialism" designed to keep them in bondage.

On their side, the Communists are in great need of Western industrial equipment which they can purchase only with hard Western currencies. Only in this way can they fulfill their ambitious plans for industrial expansion.

It is also true that the Communist bloc nations depend more upon the West than the West upon them. Poland, for example, counts on Western Europe for nearly a quarter of its foreign trade. West Germany on the other hand sends only one-twentieth of its foreign trade product to the Communist nations.

PALM CITY — Palm City's pro-golf instructor, Pete Ferenz, who has been competing in golf at Long Beach, opened his regular classes for the women "golfers - to be" Monday at 7 a.m., under the captaincy of Mrs. Elinor Rowlett. The Tuesday, 7 a.m. class is under the captaincy of Mrs. Elsie Sheehan and on Wednesday, the evening class will meet at 6:30 p.m. under the captaincy of Helen Woolacott.

Our popular Mrs. Jean Grinnell is very proud of her swimming classes for men and women which take place every Wednesday at 10 a.m. at the Palm City recreation center. The "paddlers" avidly express their praise of Mrs. Grinnell's methods of teaching. A special invitation is extended to all Palm City newcomers and residents.

Tonight at 8 p.m., the monthly men and women's card party will be held at the Palm City recreation hall, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Nadine Copeland, the July chairman and Mrs. Jean Varney general card chairman of the Palm City Women's Club. Prizes will be given and refreshments served.

Miss Eva Hodges of Michigan Drive has left on her two months vacation. She will drive to Tucson Ariz. where she plans to spend three weeks and then on to her previous home city Omaha Neb. for the balance of the summer.

Mrs. Dorothy Carscallen Wisconsin Drive is planning a welcome for her old friend Mrs. Olga Scott of Lake Moss Beach. Mrs. Scott has just returned from Ohio and plans to be in Palm City until July 20 after which Mrs. Carscallen and Mrs. Scott embark on a northwestern tour. They plan to drive to Vancouver, Lake Louise, Banff and Yellowstone and will be away for at least a month. Enroute home Mrs. Carscallen will visit her brother at Roseburg, Oregon and will also see the Frank Longs of Palm City who are spending the summer at Roseburg with their respective relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Torgerson of Minnesota Drive have returned from the Seattle Fair and many points in Canada, Yellowstone and the Grand Canyon. They pronounce their vacation as "just marvelous". Since their arrival home they spent several days at Idyllwild, but a very gracious gentlemen who noted their distress offered to escort them thru this "Private Gate" — and much to their surprise and great pleasure, the Nichols were informed that they were being escorted therein by none other than the Lieutenant Governor of the State of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Noel Lowry of Iowa Street have left for the Seattle Fair. Their plans are to spend the majority of their vacation in Aberdeen, Wash. where they previously lived for many years. Mr. Lowry a former J. C. Penny Co. store manager, and Mrs. Lowry have many friends in Aberdeen.

Mrs. Marion Frank 77-163 Michigan excitedly called to report on her recent delightful air-trip to the Hawaiian Islands. From the main island of Hawaii, they flew to the islands of Hilo, Ohau Maui and Kauai. Mrs. Frank was greatly impressed with the beauty of the many islands and the pleasant and kindly reception of the Hawaiian people.

The Tom Collingsons of Palm City have left for an extended summer vacation and will be driving up the Pacific coast to the fair at Seattle then on to Portland and into Canada. They anticipate being away for several weeks.

Church Potluck Dinner

THOUSAND PALMS — The Thousand Palms Community Church held its quarterly business meeting with the customary potluck dinner preceding and with 17 members and friends in attendance.

The pastor, the Rev. Mr. Dan Claassen, led the group in the singing of a hymn and in the devotional thought on the topic "Ambassadors of Christ." Mrs. J. A. Welcome, the moderator, then asked for reports from all boards. A vote of appreciation was given to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steinmetz for a gift of a piano lamp. Among other subjects discussed, it was agreed to continue church school and services at the regular time throughout the summer, even though the attendance may be small.

Elva Woodside on Los Flores Way entertained Hazel Pries, Bea Eaves, both of Thousand Palms, and Al Raddant of Los Angeles at dinner.

Ronald and Beverly Peck visited old friends, the Deans, Van Slykes, and the Natars in Los Angeles.

They are looking forward to entertaining Ron's mother, Mrs. H. W. Peck who comes from Jefferson Missouri for two weeks. This will be Mrs. Peck's first trip west, and Beverly is especially anxious to renew their acquaintance.

Miss Joanne Papp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Papp on Arbol Real will be guest of a friend, Miss Vickie McCormack, for three weeks, in Long Beach.

Minnie Bausman is spending a few weeks in Whittier with relatives and friends. She will be staying at the home of her aunt, Mrs. John Larsson, who with her husband is visiting their son in Salt Lake City.

A grandson whom she hadn't seen for 20 years surprised Mona Cunningham when he was the guest of her daughter and son-in-law in Garden Grove, Kenneth Lee Cunningham, a government employee from Dallas, Tex., called the Ben Wheelers from Indio, informing them he would stop to visit with them while en route from Dallas to an air force base near here. He was especially pleased to learn that his grandmother would be there to welcome him.

Legend of Fireman Joe Baldwin

MACO, N.C. (UPI) — On a murky night in 1863, the legend goes railroad fireman Joe Baldwin fell beneath the wheels of a train while switching the tracks and was decapitated.

Since then, some folks in this small community near Wilmington relate on every cloudy or rainy night "Ole Joe" returns to the place of his death to look for his head. Scores of persons have sworn during the years that they have seen the light from Joe's lantern, bobbing in the dark.

One of the witnesses, it is said, was former President Grover Cleveland, who saw the mysterious light when his train passed through the area.

Army engineers and investigators from the Smithsonian Institution have sought to solve the mystery without success. Saturday three North Carolina engineers using modern electronic equipment, will have their try.

The engineers Bill Ward of a radio station in Charlotte; C.E. Bennett III of Bell Laboratories, Burlington; and Larry Gardner of a radio station in Raleigh, will use photo multipliers and audio amplifiers for converting light into sound and a spectroscope for measuring light wave length.

The Smithsonian team worked on the theory the light was caused by swamp gases or thermal rays but after an extensive investigation, they said neither was the case and gave up. The summary of the team's report: "Inconclusive."

Persons who have seen the light say it moves up and down, indicating that wind may be a factor. Another explanation that failed to solve the riddle was that the glow was the reflection of automobile headlights. The Army Corps of Engineers put this theory to test by blocking off the area for five miles. But the light remained.

ST. LOUIS WINS

Cards Broglio Hurls 2 Hitter

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—Tireless Don Drysdale takes to the mound tonight against the St. Louis Cardinals in hopes of preserving the Los Angeles Dodger lead and nabbing his 18th triumph of the season.

Drysdale (17-4), who has been a mainstay of the Dodger starting staff, faces either Larry Jackson (9-8) or Ray Washburn (8-4).

Although Drysdale has previously won 17 games in one season three times, he has never made the 20-game circle. He is currently riding on a seven-game winning streak.

Tuesday night right-hander Ernie Broglio limited the Dodgers to four hits which gave the cards a 3-2 victory. San Francisco defeated Houston, 3-1, and now trails the Dodgers by one game.

Broglio collected his sixth win of the season against four losses on a perfect relay from Julian Javier on Frank Howard's double in the ninth that cut down the tying run.

Ron Fairly got a walk with two out in the ninth to become the first man in 17 to reach base. Then Howard doubled only to Barlick. T-2:41. A-20,005.

AAU Campaign Has Obstacle

CHICAGO (UPI)—Newly organized federations in track and basketball will offer passive resistance to the Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) in their campaign to gain international recognition.

The AAU has international recognition in both sports now.

Organization of the federation, the Basketball Federation of the United States and the U.S. Track and Field Federation, was completed Tuesday with election of officers, approval of budgets, and decisions to name executive directors and set up offices.

Cliff Fagan of the National High School Federation, newly elected secretary of the basketball group, said the AAU would not be able to use NCAA athletes in international games against the Russians this November without recognizing the federation. W. W. Russell, new president of the track group, said its athletes would not be permitted to compete in AAU sanctioned events.

The AAU, which has scheduled a series of games against the touring Russian team, had asked the NCAA to allow its athletes to compete out of season. But the NCAA refused and referred the appeal to the federation.

Without such an AAU request to the federation, which would

Mays Still Big Gun

HOUSTON (UPI)—The storied New York Giant-Brooklyn Dodger pennant battles of the 1950's have been transferred to California in the 1960's, but it is still Willie Mays who keeps the Giants at or near the top.

The Giants center fielder, who led his team to its 1951 and 1954 flags in the Polo Grounds, is now doing what he can bring the flag to Candlestick Park.

Mays whacked homers 30 and 31 for the year deep into the left field bleachers and scored the other run besides as the Giants nudged Houston, 3-1, Tuesday night before a perspiring crowd.

It was a big win for San Francisco since St. Louis handed Los Angeles a 3-2 defeat to cut the Dodgers margin over the Giants to one game.

San Francisco faces Houston again tonight as lefty Billy O'Dell (11-8) tries to keep the Giants up there against either Jim Golden (5-8) or Ken Johnson (5-11) of the Colts.

The Giants then take a one-day break before heading into their biggest series yet of the campaign, a three-game set against the Dodgers at Chavez Ravine.

Mays hit homers his first two times up. It swelled his run batted in total to 91, second best total in the National League and the majors.

The next time he came to the plate, perhaps not too unpredictably, he was hit by Dick Farrell on the first pitch. Mays limped down to first and later scored on Felipe Alou's sacrifice fly.

Jack Sanford got the win to improve his record to an impressive 13-6. Don Larsen took over in the seventh and pitched perfect relief ball the rest of the way. He and Bob Bolin have been tigers throughout the Giants current eastern road swing, which is perhaps why the Giants have not pulled their usual road fold.

Veterans Injured in Workout

FAIRFIELD, Conn. (UPI)—Veterans Frank Gifford, Dick Modzelewski and Jack Stroud suffered minor injuries Tuesday at the New York Giants training camp. Stroud, an offensive guard, is believed to be seriously injured, having suffered a twisted knee.

BOWLER OF THE MONTH winners at the Palm Springs Lanes for five months are gathered above. Out of this group, pending the results of a bowl-off, bowlers of the year will be selected.

Boys' Club Baseball

PONY LEAGUE John Bunker pitched a two hitter in downing the Hathaway Braves 12-5 and giving the Angels win number 14. Dick Brubaker led the Angel's eight hit attack going three for three and driving in four runs.

Barry Ziskins enjoyed a good evening at the bat with three RBI's and a bases loaded single in the fifth. Bunker went all the way for the winners with seven strike outs.

Bill Hathaway tripled for the Braves in the initial frame.

KEYSTONE LEAGUE

The American Legion "Legionnaires" forfeited to the George Cameron Pirates who are now only one game behind the Legion nine. Bejacks are in third place and the Elks are the current cellar dwellers.

Wednesday night's action will see the Elks facing the Pirates with the first pitch scheduled for five p.m.

Jess Willard Can Still Throw a Strong Punch

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Former world heavyweight boxing champion Jess Willard Tuesday filed two damage suits totaling $1.9 million over a television showing of his 1915 fight with Jack Johnson.

Willard, now 80, named as defendants the Columbia Broadcasting System, Schultz Brewing Co., Jimmy Jacobs, William Caylor and Turn of the Century Fights Inc., in a $1.4 million suit.

Another suit against Jacobs, Caylor and Turn of the Century Fights Inc., asked $500,000. The former champion claimed films shown last March 11 and April 3 in San Francisco and Los Angeles did not contain Willard's knockout of Johnson in the 26th round of their bout in Havana. Willard said this omission gave a "garbled and distorted version of the actual events of the fight."

TEAMS RESCHEDULE GAME

NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York Yankees will make up their rained out game of June 13 with the Detroit Tigers on Aug. 11 as part of an afternoon-night doubleheader. The teams originally had been scheduled for a day game on that date.

AGAIN TONIGHT

Angels Swap With Baltimore

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Bo Belinsky of no-hit fame appeared today to have regained his hurling ability and the Los Angeles Angels pitching situation was brighter than it has been in some weeks.

Not only was Belinsky throwing hard again but the Angels came up with a new relief star in Dan Osinski who on his first night with the club worked in both ends of Tuesday night's doubleheader and demonstrated a blazing fastball and several good breaking pitches.

The split doubleheader dropped the Angels three games behind the New York Yankees, who won Tuesday night, but Los Angeles remained two games ahead of Minnesota which also lost.
